

TEACHING METHODOLOGY COURSE

Through its relationship with Lacunza Spanish, Abroadia offers non-native Spanish teachers the opportunity to learn new methodologies in one of the most beautiful regions in Europe. Ideal for new teachers or undergraduate and graduate education majors, this program provides participants with expanded knowledge of teaching Spanish accompanied with instruction on Spanish and Basque culture and history.

This is also a wonderful opportunity for veteran teachers (elementary school, high school, and college) to augment their repertoire of Spanish instructional material.
